Refund Request

Sir:

The undersigned erroneously authorized payment of the fees indicated below on a large entity basis, but has learned that in each case Applicant declared small entity status, and therefore the fees due were 50% of the fees that were paid. The undersigned notes that in each case authorization was provided to credit any overpayments to the undersigned's Deposit Account No. 50-0644, but a review of such Deposit Account does not show that these overpayments were credited (and they have not been otherwise refunded). Accordingly, as outlined below, a total refund in the amount of $2595 is deemed to be due, and is respectfully requested.

The undersigned requests that the $2595 be refunded to the undersigned's American Express credit card no. [REDACTED], expiration date 06/10 (at least where such credit card was used to pay the original fee, as outlined below), or if that is not possible refunded to the undersigned's Deposit Account No. 50-0644.

Supporting documentation of the fees paid and Applicant's small entity declaration in each case is enclosed as Exhibits A-H.

Please direct any questions concerning this refund request to the undersigned, who can be reached directly at (610) 869-6302.
